

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Ashish Bisaria and Ned Douthat Join The ALS Association Georgia Chapter
Board of Directors

Atlanta, GA (July 2017) – The ALS Association Georgia Chapter is pleased to announce that Ashish Bisaria and Ned Douthat have been named to its Board of Directors. Each will contribute a unique skillset to the nonprofit organization dedicated to the fight against amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, otherwise known as Lou Gehrig's Disease.

Ashish Bisaria currently serves as the Senior Vice President, North America Operations at FleetCor. He is responsible for revenue growth, cost reduction, turning around business, and improving customer experience and employee morale. His dedication and commitment to ALS comes from a desire to spend his time helping and improving the lives of others. His skillset and passion for helping others will be invaluable as the The ALS Association Georgia Chapter looks forward to future growth and development of programs and services to those living with ALS

Ned Douthat is an Associate of Investment Management at Goldman Sachs & Co. He invests and manages capital for client accounts across a wide range of asset classes and investment policies to achieve long term financial planning outcomes. His desire to serve The ALS Association Georgia Chapter is rooted in his personal experience with ALS. His father was diagnosed in 2005, while Ned was in college. Upon graduation, he returned home to work and care for his father until he passed away in 2007. Ned will be able to serve The Association through the eyes of a caretaker and patient advocate. His skillset and passion will be a great addition to the organization.

"These appointments reflect The ALS Association of Georgia's continued commitment to finding the very best community leaders to guide our organization," said Executive Director Sarah Embro. "The combination of their professional backgrounds, dedication, and personal connections to ALS will be invaluable as we move forward to grow our Chapter to meet the needs of those living with ALS in the State."

About The ALS Association Georgia Chapter

The ALS Association Georgia Chapter is the only nationally affiliated not-for-profit health organization dedicated solely to the fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease. The ALS Association Georgia Chapter provides patient consultations, a medical equipment loan program, patient and caregiver support groups, and support for ALS clinics in Atlanta, Augusta and Macon. The local chapter also joins with chapters across the country to support research and participate in federal advocacy initiatives.
